

Baltic Bayonets

Doblen, Latvia March 1945:

Hauptman Heinz Schwoppe and his reserve Battalion had become a fire brigade for the 21st Luftwaffe Field Division. Wherever the lines were breached, Schwoppe's Battalion would go in and seal the breach. Some villages along the line changed hands several times with vicious hand to hand fighting.

Now once more Schwoppe and his men must retake a village and restore the line.

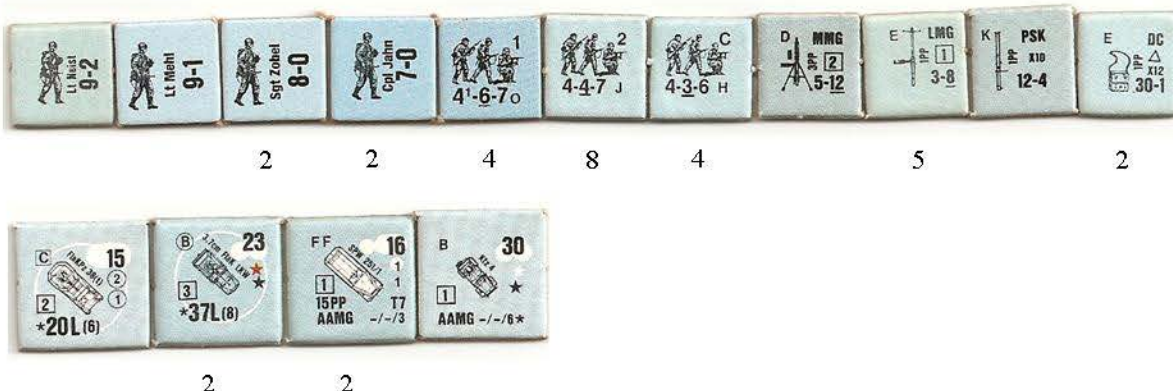

BOARD CONFIGURATION:

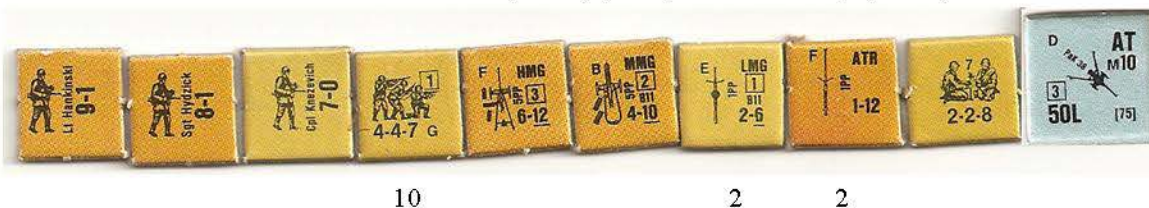

VICTORY CONDITIONS: The Germans win if at game end there are no unbroken Soviet Squads west of Row N.

Germans move First	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Soviets set up first

Reserve Battalion—21st Luftwaffe Field Division (ELR 4) (SAN 2) (Set up West of Row V)

Elements of the Soviet 150th Rifle Division (ELR 3) (Set up east of Row T) (SAN 4)

Special Rules:

- Place shell hole counters in these hexes: Y8, X8, X6, W5, V7, T7, T3, S5
- Place rubble counters in these hexes: W4, Q4, P4, P2, O6
- Place trench counter in these hexes: P7, P6, Q7, O5, O4, O3, (NOTE trench runs continuously through the rubble hexes)
- Place wire counters in these hexes: P1, O2, O8, N6 (this represents the undestroyed wire from earlier German defenses)
- No quarter rules are in effect.
- The Soviets are able to utilize the captured German 50L, but the gun breaks on a 10 or better and cannot be repaired.