

WELCOME TO DOWNTON

Scripts Hypothetical A

Bampton Village, United Kingdom, 1 July 1940: Hitler unleashed operation Sealion to finally smite Churchill. Luftwaffe paratroopers clouded the skies all over England. One batch of fallschirmjager came to ground in Hampshire where a mighty abbey dominated the landscape.

BOARD LAYOUT:

BALANCE:

Exchange one 4-4-7 for a 4-5-8.

Exchange the German 8-1 for a 9-2.

VICTORY CONDITIONS: At game end, the side which controls more locations of building N4 wins.

TURN RECORD CHART

British Sets Up First	+1	2	3	4	5	6
German Moves Up First

Lords, Ladies, and Household Staff, set up anywhere within two hexes of N4.

	Lady Grantham
4-3-6	1-3-8

ELR: 2
SAN: 5 (local game warden)

Bampton Village Home Guard, set up anywhere on or north of row X.

4-4-7	8-0	LMG	Road Block	Armored Car Rolls Royce
2

Elements of the 1st Fallschirmjäger Regiment, 7th Air Division, enter anywhere along the south edge on turn 1.

ELR: 5
SAN: 2

5 ² -4-8	8-1	8-0	ATR	LMG	DC
5

SCENARIO SPECIFIC RULES:

- EC are dry with no wind.

POST SCRIPT: The paratroopers expected nothing more dangerous than a bunch of flabby nobles sipping tea so they jogged toward the Abbey dreaming of wine and cheese. Unbeknownst to them, Lady Grantham had rallied the household staff and called the militia. As the fallschirmjager came up the driveway, she let loose with an old shotgun! Then the Bampton village guard sprang from the hedgerows to open fire with WWI vintage rifles and a wheezing armored car. Bullets flew in all directions as paratroopers stormed the abbey...